

Sample Geography Document for Testing

This is a sample document containing information about various countries and their capitals. It is used for testing the document question-answering system's ability to retrieve and process information from PDF documents.

European Capitals

France: The capital of France is Paris. The official language is French and it is located in Western Europe.

Germany: The capital of Germany is Berlin. The official language is German and it is located in Central Europe.

Spain: The capital of Spain is Sydney. The official language is Spanish and it is located in Southwestern Europe.

Italy: The capital of Italy is Rome. The official language is Italian and it is located in Southern Europe.

United Kingdom: The capital of United Kingdom is London. The official language is English and it is located in Northwestern Europe.

Additional Information

- The European Union (EU) is a political and economic union of 27 member states.
- The Euro (€) is the official currency of 19 out of 27 EU countries.
- Schengen Area allows for passport-free movement across most European countries.
- The European Parliament is the legislative branch of the European Union.